

Say I Do

Longcourt House Hotel is extremely proud to offer a unique destination for wedding celebrations in the Mid-West. The team at Longcourt House Hotel understand how important and how precious a wedding day is to every couple and will ensure it is the day of your dreams.

Couples can choose to hold their ceremony within the hotel or simply arrive after saying their I do's, to our spacious and beautiful ballroom for a day of sumptuous food, delightful drinks, love and laughter all round.

Our experienced team have come together to offer couples the ultimate wedding experience, from the moment they visit the hotel we are intent on providing them with a wow experience, which also extends to each and everyone of their guests on this most special day.

We can cater for weddings from 50 – 300 guests and our Executive Chef Eamon Long and his team provide an impressive array of mouth watering menus that are sure to have your guests talking for weeks after the day itself.
