Where Dreams Come True

LONGCOURT
HOUSE HOTEL

CONGRATULATIONS

on your engagement and welcome to

Longcourt House Hotel

Your wedding day is the most important day of your lives and, here at Longcourt House Hotel, we truly believe it's an honour to host the day for you. With our wedding team, you'll experience a truly unforgettable wedding experience. Your journey with our wedding family begins from your initial enquiry, travels right along the path of your engagement, and doesn't end until you step onto our dance floor for your very first dance as a married couple!

Marian Hughes, our Sales and Events Manager, is the first person from our team that you'll engage with on this journey. Marian will sit down with you both at your initial meeting and spend, uninterrupted time, outlining how wonderful your wedding journey can be with us at Longcourt House Hotel. Marian will ensure that your day will be everything you've always dreamed of.

Longcourt House Hotel is newly renovated and boasts a stunning ballroom, an equally beautiful reception room with a private courtyard; all of which are yours for the day of your wedding. From the moment you and your guests step on the red carpet you will be welcomed, and looked after, by our wedding team, ensuring your day will flow seamlessly as you and your guests are wined and dined to the highest standards with our undivided attention.

You, the couple, are always at the forefront of our every thought; every detail of your special day will be tailored to your individual needs, unique style and no requests are too big.

Today is the start of the most wonderful journey to your Happily Ever After and we cannot wait to make your wedding dreams a reality.

What Our Couples Say

DEARBHLA & CONOR

“Right from the start, no ask was too great. The creativity, care and organisation shown by Marian, Mario and the whole team at the Longcourt meant that every idea and personal touch was discussed, documented and then delivered on the day. Never feeling like an annoyance (although I’m sure I was with my random requests), Marian was always on the other end of the phone, laughing and chatting, assuring us that everything was in place every step of the way. Despite this, nothing could have prepared us for when the doors opened to the ballroom on November 5th. It was just breath-taking. Everything from the decor to the kindness of the staff, to the delicious food and impeccable service completely surpassed our already high expectations. The dessert buffet (for obvious reasons) was a crowd favourite!”

We really cannot thank every member of staff at the Longcourt enough for how special and memorable they made this special day. Marian and Mario - your staff are a credit to you and your leadership is evident. Thank you both also for your hard work, kindness, and dedication, but most of all for your laughter when times were stressful. We will always remember you as one of the best parts of our very special day.”

GERALDINE & PAT

“Pat and I wish to thank Longcourt House Hotel, management, staff, and especially our amazing wedding coordinator Marian Hughes, from the bottom of our hearts for what we can only describe as the perfect day. Mario, his beautiful wife Ela and their amazing team, treated Pat and I, our families and guests like V.I.P s. from start to finish. It was perfect from the planning to the departure, so much so all our guests want to do it all again. In fact, we have our first anniversary celebrations booked already.

We were blown away, by the way we were looked after, with every need catered to, every step of the way. The delightful tasting evening Pat and I had, smiling ear to ear. Such a special, intimate evening, which reassured us we were not only in safe hands, but we were also in the best hands. We could not recommend Longcourt House Hotel enough for your perfect day.”

JANE & ROB

“We had our wedding in Longcourt House Hotel in July and it was perfection! From the day we viewed the venue they couldn’t do enough for us, no ask was too big or small. All the staff are extremely professional, friendly, and accommodating. The selling point for us was the private drinks reception area and courtyard. The food and drink flowed all day, and our guests were blown away by the service - every guest was catered for! Our only wish is that we could do it all over again.”
